

As you are aware, Colin battled for many years with Dementia, but with the help of family and friends he lived a full and happy life.

Both Local and National organisations and charities for Dementia and Alzheimer's were great practical help to me and I am thankful for their support and the comfort they provided.

Your kind donation to the Alzheimer's Society is appreciated and will help them continue their invaluable work to support other families.

Thank you.

Jean Vale